OUTLINES.

Detroit and Chicago, of the respective big baseball leagues, which are now playing for the championship of the world were unable to break a tie of three to three on the Chicago grounds yesterday, this being the first of a series of five games between the pennant winners of the two organizations; over 24,000 people witnessed the game and went wild with enthusiasm——The cotton growers and spinners in convention at Atlanta yesterday took steps toward the elimination of the middle man in handling the product, the spinners giving assurance that they would prefer to deal with the grower direct if the staple could be ginned and compressed on the plantation into Egyptian bales; Hon. E. D. Smith, of South Carolina, was one of the speakers and had for his slogan "Fifteen Cents Cotton"——The House of Bishops and House of Deputies at the Episcopal convention at Richmond yesterday discussed a number of important church questions, among them being a proposition to divide church in the United States into eight provinces and another being in regard to the proposed change in name; the United States was severely criticised by a foreign Bishop for its management of the Philippines——The strike on the railways in Cuba seems to be growing in its seriousness; strike breakers have arrived on the island but have not gone to work; President Gompers has promised the strikers the co-operation of the American Federation——Six tug boats and the wrecking steamer Rescue were required to float the battleship Kentucky, which went aground at Norfolk yesterday; she came off at 10:05 last night but her bow at one time was 75 feet out of the channel and at low water it was five feet above the surface——New York markets: Money on call, strong 5 to 6 per cent., ruling rate 6, closing bid 5 1-2, offered at 6; cotton closed quiet five points lower at 11.85; flour was firm but slow; rye flour firm; wheat firm No. 2 red, $1.19 1-2 elevator; corn firm No. 2, 73 elevator; oats firm mixed, 54; spirits turpentine easy at 55 cents; rosin firm.

And now the "last survivor" of Balaklava has shuffled off this mortal coil again. Next?

If prohibition should be fastened on Washington scores of Congressmen would die of dry-rot.

It is reported that some fellow out West held up a train with a pitchfork. Tillman, sure's you're born. He's in that region right now.

The modistes inform the ladies that sleeves will be worn longer this Fall. Well, anything that will reduce the laundry bill is justifiable now.

The news that Caleb Powers has been indicted again has become as common as the announcements of the death of George Washington's body servant.

"A Chicago doctor has told the people of that city how to live a hundred years." What, in Chicago? Who would be willing to live there a hundred years?

"Loeb must be having a lonely time holding down the lid in Washington," says an esteemed contemporary. Behind the times. Loeb is holding down a mosquito net in Louisiana.

There was no need of secret service men while the President was in Memphis. He had a Confederate body guard. Besides, the anarchist does not thrive in the Southern climate.

When the New York teachers tackle the "big boys" under the new rule permitting corporal punishment in the public schools the committee on pistoricals will probably make a report.

It is remarked that Rutherford B. Hayes was the only President who barred intoxicants from the White House. It may be added that he was the only President who ever reached the White House through the theft of two States that had voted for his opponent.

And the city has declined the offer of seven acres of land, worth seven thousand dollars, or more, because of a condition annexed—that it would require an expenditure of one thousand dollars. If there were other reasons for rejecting this gift they are not given. Are we never to have a public park?

The Durham Herald says: "The Southern might have helped to elect Mr. Glenn Governor, but he is perhaps not counting on its support in his campaign for the Senate." No, he is now counting on the opposition of the Southern to aid him in his aspirations. Times change and men change with them, you know.

A.&M. WATER SUPPLY

OTHER STATE CAPITAL NEWS

National Guard Commissions Issued by Adjutant General—Libraries for Rural School—Negro Educator's Views—Charters.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 8.—The Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees of the A. & M. College have made a contract with the Wake Water Company, which furnishes the water supply for Raleigh for an adequate supply of pure water for the college. This also assures pure water for all of West Raleigh, which has heretofore been unable to get a connection with the city water works. It will be gratifying news for the patrons of the college throughout the State that the college has at last been able to obtain a contract for the city water which is among the purest to be found anywhere in the State. There have been several cases of typhoid fever in the neighborhood of the college this Fall, due to the impure water obtained, necessarily from local sources. All this danger is now eliminated.

From the office of Adjutant General T. R. Robertson announcement is made of North Carolina National Guard appointments as follows: J. C. Bessent, Winston-Salem, Lieutenant-Colonel, First Infantry, to succeed George E. Butler, resigned; D. D. Parks, captain of company I, Mt. Airy, promoted to major of the First Infantry, to succeed J. C. Bessent; W. A. Jackson, J. F. Wittt and C. F. Melton as respectively captain and first and second lieutenants of company I, Mt. Airy.

Two suits for damages have been instituted in this county against the Southern Railway Company, one by Theo. Webb, asking damages for injuries sustained in a wreck near Concord some months ago and the other by Dave P. Lane, the notorious negro lawyer here. He was also injured in a railroad accident some time ago. The amount of damages demanded has not been named yet in the development of the suits.

In the office of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction warrants on the State Treasury are issued for the State appropriations for one rural library each in New Hanover and Durham counties and four supplementary libraries for Durham county.

The State Superintendent of Public Instruction has received a letter from a well known negro educator in which he declares that he is striving to teach his race to be honorable citizens, impressing them with the importance of bearing proper relation with their white friends, recognizing the fact that there are positions which in this country are for the white man only. Furthermore that stealing is stealing, whether it be eggs, chickens or time, and that the perpetrator is a rogue.

The Rose-O-Leve Medical Company, of Charlotte, is chartered with $25,000 capital authorized and $300 subscribed by A. Thies, W. T. Williford and others for making a German salve and other medicines. Another charter is for the Lattimore Lumber Company, Cleveland county, capital $25,000 by J. P. Lattimore and others. Also the Highlands Realty and Improvement Company, of Reidsville, capital $15,000 by J. D. Huffines, F. A. Silver and others.

Mr. J. C. Wells Dead.

Friends in this city and in Duplin county, where he had spent most of his life will regret to learn of the death of Mr. J. C. Wells, an esteemed citizen of Delgado, which occurred Monday evening at his home there. Mr. Wells was 56 years of age and leaves a wife and several children. The remains were taken yesterday morning to the former home of the family at Teachey's, N. C., for interment.

LIEUT. REINBURG'S BLUFF

Courage and Ability to Meet Difficult Situation Averted Battle—Gun Play Saved the Day With Japanese Sealers.

The many friends in this city of Second Lieutenant Reinburg, formerly of the United States Revenue Cutter Seminole stationed at this port, will read with interest the following from the Washington, D. C. Herald of a recent date:

"American courage and ability to bluff averted what might have been international complications at Unalaska September 6. Only the prompt action of a boat load of American sailors under command of Second Lieutenant Reinburg, of the revenue cutter Thetis, prevented a bloody battle between Japanese sealers and the American seamen.

"Thirty or more Japanese seal hunters were ordered restored to their ship after their acquittal of the charge of seal poaching by a federal grand jury at Valdez. By order of Attorney General Bonaparte the Japanese were to be restored to their schooner Kaiwa Maru and allowed to sail home instead of being sent to Seattle and returned by the immigration authorities here. The revenue cutter Thetis was given the commission to see that the aliens were properly returned to their ship and Second Lieutenant Reinburg was put in charge of the ship's boat which was to take the men to their schooner.

"On embarking the men protested strenuously. They apparently had no wish to return to their boat, much preferring to make trouble. A little strong arm work on the part of the American sailors, however, got the passengers into a small boat and they started for the Kaiwa. When they approached the schooner, the Japanese captain began to protest and make a disturbance. Lieutenant Reinburg drew a revolver and leveled it at the sealing master. When he was convinced that the American officer was in earnest the Japanese captain subsided.

"Once on their own decks the Japanese rushed for their rifles and trained their aim at the Americans. At the command of the lieutenant, the boat load of sailors rose and aimed deliberately at the sealers. Lieutenant Reinburg fired a few shots into the air and convinced that his men meant business, the sealers dropped their weapons.

"The incident was noticed from the Thetis and several boats put out at once for the schooner, but their presence was not required."

STORY FOR THE NIMRODS.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Point, N. C., Oct. 8.—On this beat within the last few days, in the Nimrod's way, there is "something doing." Recently Mr. John B. Davis and his dog caught one in the jamb of the fence. Mr. Davis took it by the tail with his left hand and clubbed it with his right, he being entirely without a gun. This week Nimrods Jake Stokes and Sam Burton brought a fine buck home. Yesterday Jerome Shaw and Buck Bloodworth gathered another monarch of the forest and venison haunch and saddle will be displayed from Ike Rhodes' shambles.

Northeast Chapel, near Sturgeon Creek, a church that is no longer used, is now a deer fold. They sleep there nightly; come in during the small hours, assemble around the altar and before returning get on bended knee with humble thanks that they have not got in range of Mr. Calhoun Bordeaux' gun, as they range on his ranch near by. There is a graveyard near and no Afro-American can be induced to look after "dem deer." Mr. Bordeaux was seen near by last P. M. with a branding iron for the fawns on which he wishes to impress Bar D. Should any Wilmington hunters wish to visit these scenes, tell them not to come in automobiles for two reasons: the roads are simply terrible and the deer don't like the gasolene odor.

It is a sad commentary on human affairs that the church in which such men as Drs. Deems, Nicholson, Class and many other celebrities of the Methodist Church held forth, should be given over to deer herd. The Holy Bible and hymn book still repose on the sacred desk, but no congregation meets them. An empty school house is also on the same, Public No. 10, white. Thus the country is growing wild and the little towns are growing at its expense. This information comes from the rural carrier, who ought to be truthful if he is not.

THE C. W. POLVOGT CO

Annual Fall and Winter Opening of New and Exclusive Styles in Millinery.

STORE THRONGED ALL DAY

Exclusive styles in new and fashionable millinery, a magnificent showing of all the latest fads and fancies in dress goods of every weave and texture, introducing many novelties and ideas new to this season, a pretty display of cloaks and coat suits, the store and show windows beautifully decorated in keeping with the autumn-tide and thronged with among the most fashionable and discriminating shoppers in Wilmington City, were the features of the annual Fall and Winter opening of millinery and dry goods at the favorite establishment of the C. W. Polvogt Company, in the Southern Building, which began with the opening of the store yesterday morning and will continue through today. The weather yesterday was not all that could be desired for an occasion of the kind, but those who braved the inconveniences of the day were amply repaid for any discomfort in being among the first and were charmed and delighted with what was seen and heard at this premier dry goods event of the season.

One did not have to be told that the opening at Polvogt's was in progress. The beautiful show windows in front, resplendent with bright new goods, bore silent and eloquent testimony to the fact that it was the annual opening. The south window contained a pretty display of silks, plaids and plain taffetas, with the new Persian bands which are in such great favor this season, the overhead being draped with Southern smilax. The large oval show window immediately in front was devoted to millinery, a large wax figure being used for the two-fold purpose of showing to fine advantage both one of the latest models in cloaks and one of the effective styles this year in headgear. Overhead was a very pretty arrangement of autumn leaves. The north window contained a splendid showing of other dress fabrics including the famous Panama suitings, invisible or shadow plaids with dress trimmings to match. These decorations with those inside the store which were also of a pleasing and pretty nature were designed by Mr. Allie Price, an expert in this line, and executed by the other salesmen and salesladies in the store.

The millinery department which occupies the gallery in the rear of the store and occupying a commanding view from the front was, of course, the cynosure of all eyes. The decorations were with a grape arbor effect this being the idea of Mr. Polvogt. The department is again this year in charge of Mrs. Felton and Miss Peacock, both of whom spent some time in the North this Summer and with Mr. Polvogt, made the selections in the leading fashion centres visited. The stock this year seems to be larger and in greater variety than ever before. In this department there are more than four hundred trimmed and pattern hats, representing the latest Fall styles and fancies in headgear. The prevailing shades seem to be green, brown and purple and the favorite trimmings are roses, ostrich plumes and Morabout trimmings. These are seen in great profusion in the display and many orders were given during the hours of the opening. The hats need to be seen to be admired. The prosaic columns of a newspaper do not meet the requirements of such a task. The visitors to the store yesterday were kind enough to say to Mrs. Felton, Miss Peacock and Mr. Polvogt that the opening this year is much prettier and more stylish than ever before. The opening continues today and all the ladies of the city are most cordially invited to come and see for themselves what Dame Fashion has decreed for the season.

The cloak and suit department is an especial feature of the opening this season. It is in charge of Mrs. M. J. Yopp and is complete in every particular. Mrs. Yopp has had much experience in making and fitting suits and with the styles at her command in the stock of the Polvogt Company, it is a real delight to have her friends call.

The dry goods department is still in charge of Mr. Allie Price and all the newest and latest fabrics are shown. There is a splendid showing of Panama suitings, the invisible plaids, dress trimmings, silks, Persian bands, etc.

Another department which is right to the fore in the opening is the carpet and matting. This is in charge of a competent salesman and all carpets and mattings are laid free. The stock for Fall and Winter was never larger or more varied. The most exacting customer may find something to suit and pains are taken to make prompt delivery and give the best of service in laying. The line also embraces window shades, curtains, etc.

While these departments are features, the opening is not confined to any one particular line in the store. The recent big sale at the store makes it possible for the proprietor to lay in for the Fall and Winter all new goods and the Polvogt Company's way of merchandising is such as to commend it to the trade and to the general public. Remember the opening continues today and all the ladies of Wilmington and surrounding country are most cordially invited.

BOATS HIGH AND DRY.

Water Below the Navigable Stage in Cape Fear River.

Fayetteville, Oct. 8.—The Observer this afternoon says:

"The was hardly a foot of water in the Cape Fear at 8 o'clock this morning. The steamers City of Fayetteville and A. J. Johnson are both stranded at the old jetties, two miles below Fayetteville. The City of Fayetteville left here yesterday with a big cargo, including 80 bales of cotton and 25 cases of factory goods, but got no further than the jetties when she went aground and stuck fast. The steamer A. J. Johnson, not so heavily loaded, left her wharf here this morning, confidently expecting that she could weather the shoals, but she, too, came to grief, and now both steamers are lying side by side, utterly helpless, awaiting higher water to float them. The passengers on both boats were returned to Fayetteville in row boats.

"The steamer Lyon was reported as passing Elizabethtown this morning, bound for Fayetteville with a heavy cargo of freight from the Baltimore steamer, but it is feared she will run aground beside the City of Fayetteville and the Johnson."

ANOTHER HUNG JURY

Twelve Men Unable to Agree Upon Verdict in Burriss Damage Suit.

WERE OUT ALL LAST NIGHT

Mistrial in Proceedings Against C. D. Gore Involving Title to House and Lot—Unusual Termination in Divorce Suit.

Another hung jury is the result of the submission of the issues in the $10,000 damage suit brought by Capt. J. A. Burriss against the City of Wilmington in the Superior Court yesterday morning shortly after 11 o'clock. The case had been in hearing two days and when court convened at 9:30 yesterday morning Hon. John D. Bellamy, for the plaintiff, completed the argument to the jury. Then followed the charge of His Honor, Judge Biggs, which was regarded in every way fair to both sides. It was not expected that the twelve men would be out a great while, but the dinner hour arrived, then the supper hour and then the midnight hour, and there was still no agreement last night.. This morning the jury has retired in the court room and there seems no likelihood of an agreement before the convening of court again this morning. Certain instructions as to contributory negligence were asked and given yesterday afternoon, but the information evidently little helped the twelve men in arriving at a conclusion. The jury in the case is composed of Messrs. Jas. J. Allen, J. C. Loder, D. L. Lee, Albert Solomon, Geo. A. Diebert, J. T Eagle, N. B. Chadwick, Jos. D. Smith, L. M. LeGwin, C. George, W. P. Duncan and A. W. Clemmons.

The evidence in the case was all taken in shorthand by Mr. Meares Harriss and copies of the testimony were delivered upon completion of the trial which was a remarkably fine piece of court reporting. Notwithstanding this facility, however, the case has dragged along very slowly and the failure of the jury to agree and terminate the action either for the plaintiff or defendant, was generally regretted.

The only other case entered upon yesterday was one involving the title to a house and lot between Julia Austin, colored, the plaintiff, and Mr. Calvin D. Gore, the plaintiff claiming that she had bought and paid for the house and lot from Mr. Gore and the defendant claiming that the payments the woman made were only rentals on the property. When several hours had been consumed in selecting a jury and some time had been devoted to the hearing of testimony, lasting practically all the afternoon, it suddenly developed that the parties plaintiff were not the proper persons and a mistrial resulted, the plaintiffs being allowed to file an amended complaint and the defence being given time to answer same.

The attorneys in the case are Messrs. John D. Bellamy & Son, and George L. Peschau for the plaintiff, and Messrs. Bellamy & Bellamy, A. J. Marshall and Woodus Kellum for the defendant.. The whole question at issue seems to be as to whether or not the plaintiff signed a mortgage or whether she signed a deed for the property to Mr. Gore. A new suit will be brought and the case will finally be passed upon by the courts.

A most singular occurrence during the afternoon session of the court was the failure of a jury to agree upon a verdict in an uncontested divorce suit brought by Lillie T. Turner against John Turner, both white. Mr. Marshall appeared for the plaintiff and the husband did not put in an appearance, neither was there any argument to combat the charge of adultery, upon which ground the suit was brought. It is usual in such cases to pick up a jury about the court room and a verdict is generally returned without leaving the box. Mr. Marshall presented his case in due form and the jury after the charge of His Honor, retired. Half an hour went on with no tidings from the room, then it was an hour, then an hour and a half and the jury came into court and said it was eleven to one; there was no possibility of agreeing and there would never be a likelihood of a verdict. Under the circumstances, Judge Biggs ordered Mr. W. N. Harriss, deputy clerk, to make a mistrial of the cause and the jury was discharged at 7 o'clock.

The first case to be taken up this morning will likely be that of J. H. Scull against the Atlantic Coast Line, involving penalty for an alleged discriminative freight rate on certain holiday foliage shipped to Cincinnati from Cronly a year or two ago.

After the Scull case an effort will be made to reach the suits against the Clarendon Water Works Company, for which a large number of witnesses have been summoned. The first of these suits is by Gaston D. Phares & Co., who allege damages for furniture which was burned in the Vollers fire some time ago.

The Isthmian Canal Commission has awarded to the Newport News Shipbuilding and Drydock Company a contract for furnishing six steel dredges for canal work at $120,000.

WAITING FOR THE "DOUGH."

It does not appear that the Republican leaders are greatly concerned over the reports sent out from Washington concerning the anger of the negro leaders at the President and their intention to make the resentment felt when the Republican national convention meets next year. Such announcements are accepted as meaning nothing more than that the professional negro politicians are, as usual, at the beginning of a national campaign, going about with outstretched hands and itching palms. It simply means that they wish to be "placated" in the customary way; but no attention will be paid to them until the election of delegates is held, and their votes are needed, when they will be bought in "blocks of five." The Philadelphia Ledger believes that if the reported revolt of the negroes were genuine the results would be of much benefit to the Republican organization and the country. In this connection it says:

"To the average Republican in this part of the land the agitation of the negroes and their threats of vengeance are not taken seriously, but one good thing may come of the outbreak if only it shall be carried far enough. That is, a readjustment of the basis of representation in the national convention, as advocated by the late Senator Hanna, by which the delegates will represent votes rather than population. The immediate effect would be the elimination to a great extent of the possibility of the will of the great mass of the party, in the States where their votes count for something, being thwarted by delegates who are barely allowed to vote at all, and who have no more influence upon the result in national elections than the cawing of crows."

In other words, the Ledger believes it would eliminate the negro delegate from Republican national conventions, and also remove from the field of political activity those candidates for the presidential nomination who seek to obtain it by opening a "barrel" and buying the negro delegations that are sent up from the Southern States. This traffic has long been a Republican scandal which would end with the elimination of the negro delegate, who is bought before he goes to the convention and is frequently bought again after he gets there.

The Ledger is right. The negro delegates from the South sometimes hold the balance of power and on their purchased votes the nomination of a Republican candidate for President may depend.

OKLAHOMA.

The Philadelphia Ledger finds much to displease it in the recent Democratic victory in Oklahoma, and it goes to the length of expressing the hope that if President Roosevelt can find somewhere a definition of a "Republican form of government" that he will take advantage of it and keep the "new rotten borough" out of Statehood. The fact that this statement is made by a newspaper published in the rottenest State of America, or the world for that matter, evokes the following rather pertinent remarks from the Houston Post:

"Granting that there are experimental features in the new State's constitution, why should a full-fledged State with a population of nearly 1,500,000 be subjected to criticism from a State with the dark record of Pennsylvania? It is not likely that Oklahoma's imperfect constitution will ever be productive of the rottenness which has been lately revealed in Pennsylvania. The governor who has been selected to execute the Oklahoma laws is in all rspects superior to Pennypacker, recently chief executive of Pennsylvania, and the two men nominated for the United States Senate from the new State are in every respect better than Penrose, and infinitely superior to the Senators from New York, or Rhode Island, or Connecticut, or New Jersey or Delaware."

Cars operated by electricity generated by gasoline engines are to be placed on the street railways of Appleton, Wis., instead of the trolley, the system being the same as is now in use in parts of Germany. One advantage it has is found in the fact that each car is independent of all the rest, and there need be no blockade of the whole line when the current is shut off, as is the case with the trolley. But that does not appear as the reason why the company favors it, its reason being found in the statement that a saving of 50 per cent. can be made by its use.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—The prohibition of the liquor trade in the District of Columbia by act of Congress is to be the next move of the anti-rum agitators. The Southern Congressmen are counted upon to favor it, as a result of the extensive development of prohibition sentiment in the Southern States. Representative Craig of the Fourth Alabama district announces that he is going to introduce and push a bill for this purpose. Naturally, the hotel keepers and saloon men of Washington are alarmed. The effect of such a law on their business would be disastrous.

—The American plans at The Hague for a permanent court of arbitration has failed by the vote of 9 to 5, England and Germany voting against the proposition. A compromise, or make shift, proposed by England, that the various governments should consider the matter and how best to overcome the difficulties that had baffled the Peace Conference, was carried by 8 to 5. So the Peace Conference has been a failure as every one with a grain of sense knew it would be in advance of the meeting. What is the use of trying to agree on arbitration instead of war when every country is straining its resources to build larger navies and keep up standing armies? The only chance for peace is to lick the fellow into submission who declares for war.—Schenectady Gazette (Dem.)

—No party standing for the policies which Mr. Hearst has advocated in his yellow journals can succeed in a national election. Yet a party formed as proposed must stand for those policies. Mr. Hearst is the Independence League. If that league is developed into a national party Mr. Hearst will be its leader. That is the logic of the situation. Although it is true that there are many Americans who are ready to accept all sorts of wild political doctrine, it is also true that a vast majority of them have too much good sense to be led astray by the political will-o'-o' the wisps that have fascinated Mr. Hearst and his followers. Those who are preparing to follow Mr. Hearst as a politicial Moses will never see the Promised Land.—Rochester Union (Dem.)

—Everybody says that there isn't the very smallest speck of a war cloud anywhere on the horizon, not even a speck as large as a man's hand. Nevertheless hurry orders have been sent to the government arsenals for the manufacture of many thousands of rounds of the new bullets and the arsenals are working over time. The new bullet, known as the Spitz needle-point, is not as thick as the Krag bullet but is longer and has an end as sharp as a pin. Its trajectory is must flatter than that of the old bullet, which, according to the experts, makes it far more dangerous to a dismounted enemy since it will strike a man where the old bullet would fly over his head. The new bullets, it is understood, are to be distributed to the army posts as rapidly as they can be turned out by the factories. — Savannah News (Dem.)

—Governor Johnson is a reformer, and yet he is at the same time a man of good sense and sound judgment, leaning perhaps a little to the conservative side. He has been confronted with the same situation as that faced by Governors Glenn and Comer, but he has not indulged in any violent talk, or threatened to resist the process of the courts of the nation. Minnesota's interests will be as well protected as those of the two Southern States in which such an outcry has been raised. There is nothing spectacular about Johnson. He is a plain man whose only aim is to do his duty. His honesty is above reproach, and his ability is good. It is not surprising that many Democrats should be looking to him as the man to lead their party out of the wilderness. He has "made good" as an executive officer. He is a genuine Democrat, both in creed and life. He is popular in his own state and throughout the Northwest, as is shown by his carrying Minnesota in the very year in which Mr. Roosevelt was elected. Minnesota cast her vote for Roosevelt and Johnson. Finally he represents no faction, and is involved in none of the quarrels which have so long distracted the party. We should say that, with Bryan out of it, Johnson's chances would be bright.

TWINKLINGS.

—Tripper—I say, Johnny, what do people in the country do when a wasp stings 'em? Yittle Johnny (solemnly)—Holler!—London Opinion.

—"Do they never forget their differences?" "Why, yes, in a way. He forgets that he's a gentleman and she forgets that she's a lady."—Puck.

—How do you know your husband loves you; does he eat your cooking?" "Yes, but he refuses to let me eat it."—Houston Post.

—"Out of a job?" "Yes—and they put a woman in my place." "Gee! Well, I'll tell you—why don't you marry the woman?"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

—"One woman," remarked the mere man. "Is just as good as another—if not better." "And one man," rejoined the fair widow, "is just as bad as another—if not worse."—Chicago News.

—"Pa, what's the difference between an investment and a speculation?" "When you win it's an investment. When you lose it's a speculation."—Chicago Record-Herald.

—De Auber—This is a portrait of Judge Blank. What do you think I ought to get for it? Criticus—Oh, about six months.—Chicago Daily News.

"Was there anything really humorous about your show?" "Yes," answered the manager; "the critics said some things about it next day that were really funny."—Washington Star.

—"You have got a new brother." "Gee! What'll he do for clothes to wear? I wear brother's old clothes, an' they ain't nothin' left when I get through."—Houston Post.

—"You know," began the sentimental young man, "they say 'all the world loves a lover.'" "Yes," sneered the cynic, "but not as much as it loves to hear the lover's letters read out in court."—Philadelphia Press.

—"What," queried the very young man, "is the secret of happiness?" "The secret of happiness," answered the sage of Sageeville, "is not to let your troubles bother you any more than they bother your friends."—Chicago Daily News.

—"The Woman's Sewing Circle of our church is ripping mad at our new minister." "What about?" "They asked him to select a hymn to be sung at each of their meetings and he suggested 'Knocking, Knocking, Who is There?'"—Brooklyn Life.

—"There is too much water in stocks," remarked the financier. "That," responded Colonel Stillwell genially, "is due to your lack of foresight in not locating Wall Street down in Kentucky, where the limitations of water are more properly understood."—Washington Star.

—"You charge me two dollars for that little dish of 'possum?" said the guest at the cross-roads hotel. "It's an outrage!" "No, it ain't, stranger," replied the land-lord. "I wuz six nights ketchin' that 'possum, an' when I kotched him I kotched the rheumatism with him, an' I need the money fer my doctor's bill!"—Atlanta Constitution.

—Handsome Customer (in art store)—I'd like to get something that would make a suitable present for a young man. Salesman—If you will pardon the suggestion, I think a nicely framed portrait of yourself would—Handsome Customer—O, he wouldn't care for that. He's my husband, you know.—Chicago Tribune.

SOME OPINIONS ON ROWLAND CASE

Verdict as Rendered in Raleigh Sunday Subject of Wide Editorial Comment in the State—Division of Sentiment.

(Raleigh News and Observer.)

There is division of opinion in Raleigh over the verdict that frees the Rowlands. There is no division of opinion about the scandal of their hasty marriage after the sudden death of the woman's husband. Many believe they are guilty as charged; more probably believe they are guilty but that it was not proved beyond a reasonable doubt; and many believe they have been victims of persecution. No case of like character has been tried in North Carolina in the life of this generation. If they are innocent, they have been terribly punished. If they are guilty they have had a long term in jail and have received punishment that has not been light.

In any event, the spectacle of a Sunday morning reception in an office on a public street, calculated to make people away from Raleigh think that they were worthy of a public reception is an incident that does not correctly guage Raleigh sentiment. Naturally their friends were glad and their happiness in escaping the gallows gave them joy, but the reception was wholly out of place. It was mainly participated in by thoughtless people who upon impulse had escaped the moose. But nine-tenths of the people of Raleigh never heard of it and had nothing to do with it.

(Charlotte News.)

We are glad the Rowland trial is ended, and though the verdict is somewhat of a surprise, it is well enough that the case has ended so soon. The evidence against the Rowlands seemed to have been only circumstantial and a jury of 12 honest men decided it was not strong enough to convict. Such cases as this have anything but a wholesome effect on a community and we are glad that the jury was not long about finding a verdict, from which no appeal is asked.

(Charlotte Chronicle.)

The acquittal of Dr. Rowland and his wife, in Raleigh, yesterday, was followed by some unusual scenes, among them a public reception, during the course of which a wagon load of flowers was brought in. Dr. Rowland and his wife were accused of having killed Engineer Strange, the woman's husband, so as to make her marriage to Dr. Rowland convenient. Soon after the engineer's death they registered at a Norfolk hotel as man and wife—before they had been married. That testimony was proved. Other evidence not of a character to call for flowers was brought out during the trial. In the jubilation over the verdict of an acquittal which had all the time been expected, the Raleigh people who trod on each other's heels, smashed each other's hats and tore each other's clothes in a mad rush to get the handshake, must have overlooked these things. The Rowlands were acquitted of the murder of the engineer, but there were things they were not acquitted of. The hysteria excited by their case would have been out of place, even in a red light district.

Hard Times in Kansas.

The old days of grasshoppers and drought are almost forgotten in the prosperous Kansas of today; although a citizen of Codell, Early Shamburg, has not yet forgotten a hard time he encountered. He says: "I was worn out and discouraged by coughing night and day, and could find no relief till I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. It took less than one bottle to completely cure me." The safest and most reliable cough and cold cure and lung and throat healer ever discovered. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy's drug store 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

His Dear Old Mother.

"My dear old mother, who is now eighty three years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. B. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. "She has taken them for about two years and enjoys an excellet appetite, feels strong and sleeps well." That's the way Electric Bitters affects the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak, puny children too, are greatly strengthened by them. Guaranteed also for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by R. R. Bellamy, Druggist. 50c.

TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM.

Is the Only Possible Way of Having An Effective Cure.

If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant glossy hair, you may be sure neither has dandruff to amount to anything In nearly every case where women and men have thin brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff but not one but Newbro's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy the germ but Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, and you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co. Detroit, Mich.

WOMEN WHO CHARM

MISS HULDA KUGHLER MISS ELIZABETH WYNN

There is a beauty and attractiveness in health which is far greater than mere regularity of feature.

A sickly, irritable, and complaining woman always carries a cloud of depression with her; she is not only unhappy herself but is a damper to all joy and happiness when with her family and friends.

It is the bright, healthy, vivacious woman who always charms and carries sunshine wherever she goes.

If a woman finds that her energies are flagging and that everything tires her; if her feminine system fails to perform its allotted duties, there is nervousness, sleeplessness, faintness, backache, headache, bearing-down pains, and irregularities, causing constant misery and melancholia, she should remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made from native roots and herbs will dispel all these troubles. By correcting the cause of the trouble it cures where other treatment may have failed.

Miss Elizabeth Wynn, of No. 205 8th Avenue, New York City, writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"For months I suffered with dreadful headaches, pain in the back and severe hemorrhages. I was weak and out of sorts all the time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me when all other medicine had failed. It seemed to be just what I needed and quickly restored my health."

Miss Hulda Kughler, of No, 23, West 15th Street, New York City, writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"For months I was ill with an internal trouble. I suffered terrible agony, was nervous, irritable, and sick all the time. I took different medicines without benefit. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended and within six months I was completely restored to health and I want to recommend it to every suffering woman."

Women who are troubled with painful or irregular functions, backache, bloating (or flatulence), displacements, inflammation or ulceration, that bearing-down feeling, dizziness, indigestion, or nervous prostration may be restored to perfect health and strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound,

Mrs. Pinkham's Invitation to Women.

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. From the symptoms given, the trouble may be located and the quickest and surest way of recovery advised. Out of her vast volume of experience in treating female ills Mrs. Pinkham probably has the very knowledge that will help your case. Her advice is free and always helpful.

THE EARL OF WILMINGTON

Distinguished Britisher for Whom City Was Named—A Portrait.

From 11 o'clock this morning until 4 o'clock this afternoon the Mayor and members of the Board of Aldermen and Board of Audit and Finance will have the rare privilege of looking upon an excellent likeness of The Right Honorable Spencer Compton, Earl of Wilmington, for whom this city was named 168 years ago, a splendid picture of this nobleman having recently been secured by Mr. James Sprunt in England and will be displayed by him in the Mayor's office between the hours named for the inspection of the city officials before being placed for the privilege of general inspection by the public at large.

Mr. Sprunt in a formal letter to the Mayor extending the courtesy gives an excellent historical sketch of the Earl of Wilmington and says that quickened public interest in the Colonial History of North Carolina induced him some time ago to undertake for the North Carolina Society of the Colonial Dames a study of the men in whose honor the city of Wilmington was named. A better knowledge of this distinguished personage naturally inspired him with a desire to see what manner of man he was, but a year's search throughout the United Kingdom failed to reveal a portrait or any likeness of any kind and it was only recently that his agents discovered an excellent picture of the Earl in a private collection in Hertfordshire, which has been successfully copied for Mr. Sprunt by Mr. Bosdet, of the Royal Academy of Arts in London. This copy has been forwarded to Mr. Sprunt and for the first time in the history of the city, a likeness of the distinguished Englishman of the earlier days will be shown in Wilmington. The exhibition of the picture, valuable as it is, must necessarily be safeguarded and for that reason the specific hours at which the members of the two Boards and city officials may call at the Mayor's office have been named.

WAY AND YATES ARE HELD.

Charged With Highway Robbery of Young Trembley Saturday Night.

In the police court yesterday Walter Way and Louis Yates, white men, were bound to the higher court under bonds of $200 each to answer the double charge of highway robbery and of an assault with intent to rob William Brunson, a negro carpenter who had just made a deposit in the People's Savings Bank and was induced to follow the man on the postoffice green, where he was knocked down and a package of laundry was taken from him. The principal charge, however, was that of the robbery of young Trembley of $7 in cash near Fourth and Bladen streets, the particulars of which were given in Sunday's paper. The defendants were not represented by counsel. Col. A. M. Waddell had been asked to take the case, but for reasons known to himself he declined to take the case after going to the City Hall for the hearing. It developed during the evidence that overtures had been made to young Trembley to withdraw the case of robbery for a money consideration and this is now being looked into by the Mayor and a warrant may issue later, the charge being contempt.

The other cases yesterday were of no general interest, being largly for drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

The Edison phonograph parlors have now been opened by Messrs. J. W. Robinson & Co., at 205 Princess street, and the place is being visited by large numbers of people who are delighted with the new machines and the new and up-to-date records. Vice President—Mr. J. Holmes Davis.

Secretary and Treasurer and Superintendent—Mr. E. Schulken.

One of these improvements will be the construction of a gangway to the Sound while there will be still others.

PASSANO-MOORE.

Well Known Young People in Wilmington Married in Baltimore.

Many friends of the young people in Wilmington will read with interest the following from the society page of yesterday's Baltimore Sun:

Mr. John P. Moore, Jr., and Miss Rosamond Passano were married at the Episcopal Church of St. Michael and All Angels by the rector, Rev. John Garner Murray at 4 P. M. yesterday. The bride and groom both being in mourning, the ceremony was witnessed by a few intimate friends.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Louise Passano and the late Leonard Passano, of Baltimore, and the groom is the only son of State Senator John P. Moore, of Snow Hill, Md. After the ceremony the bride and groom left for a wedding tour. They will make their home in Wilmington, N. C., where the groom is engaged in the lumber business.

Handsome Fire Apparatus.

The new combination chemical engine and hose wagon for the Fire Department was immediately placed in commission by Chairman French, of the committee, yesterday on account of the disabling of the apparatus of No. 2 company, Sixth and Castle, in the unfortunate accident of Monday. The new machine is as pretty a piece of apparatus as was ever purchased for the local department and temporarily it has been installed at Sixth and Castle street station. Later, it is understood, it will be permanently located in the new consolidated fire house at Fourth and Campbell. A pair of new horses has been ordered by telegraph to Baltimore to take the place of the two killed and disabled Monday. The one injured is showing some signs of improvement, but may be permanently injured to such an extent that his service in the department will be impaired.

To Wed This Morning.

Of interest to many friends here and elsewhere will be the marraige of Miss Eva Murphy, the attractive young daughter of Mrs. Sarah Murphy, of this city, and Mr. O. L. Jones, of Pelham, Ga., but formerly of Sampson county. The ceremony will take place this morning at 9 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, on Walnut street, the Rev. A. D. McClure, D. D., pastor of Saint Andrew's Presbyterian Church, officiating.

Foreman Canady Doing Well.

The many friends of Foreman Canady, who was so badly injured in the wreck of the hose wagon at Fourth and Princess streets Monday afternoon, will be glad to know that he was doing as well as could be expected yesterday, but it will be some time before he is able to be out again. There were many inquiries as to his condition yesterday and much sympathy was expressed for him.

Elected Assistant Cashier.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the People's Savings Bank yesterday Mr. Osborn G. Foard was elected assistant cashier of the institution. Mr. Foard is a clever young Wilmingtonian who has been with the bank some time in the position of teller and will fill the new office with credit to himself and to the institution by which he is employed.

BUFFALO BILL'S SHOWS.

Some of Big Features That Are Coming to Wilmington.

Drills, manual of arms and wall-scaling by Devlin's Zouaves, will be one of the features of interest with Buffalo Bill's Wild West when it visits this city. Military drills and cavalry charges will also be prominently featured by Col. Wm. F. Cody's organization. Bucking broncbos, trained mustangs, Indian battles and war dances, and a variety of cowboy sports will also be incidental features of the exhibition. "The Battle of Summit Springs" and "The Great Train Hold-Up" will, of course, be prominent factors in the entertainment.

Col. Wm. F. Cody, who will positively appear in the saddle at each performance of Buffalo Bill's Wild West, when it visits this city, will give displays of his unerring marksmanship. Another sharp-shooter with the big exhibition will be Johnnie Baker, a marksman of remarkable skill. His trap-shooting, executed in the most difficult position and with lightning rapidity, and his shattering of glass balls tossed into the air, comprises a noteworthy feature of the Wild West exhibition.

The Cowboy Band, led by William Sweeney, will furnish music for Buffalo Bill's Wild West exhibition when it visits this city. These men are not alone skillful musicians, but they are expert horsemen and discourse music from the saddle. With stirring battle scenes, exhibitions of daring horsemanship, cowboy sports, martial drills and military manoeuvres, Col. Wm. F. Cody's exhibition offers an entertainment quite out of the ordinary in all particulars.

BATTLESHIP AGROUND.

Sevent Tugs and Wrecking Steamer Required to Float Kentucky.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 8.—With the assistance of seven powerful tugs the big battleship Kentucky, which stranded off Lambert's Point this morning while endeavoring to avoid a possible collision with vessels lying at anchor in the stream awaiting their turns to take on coal at the piers was floated at 10:05 tonight.

It was 8:20 o'clock this morning when the Kentucky met with the accident that rendered her powerful engines useless so far as releasing hr from her position was concerned and the combined efforts of six of the strongest tugs in these waters failed to move her an inch.

Orders came from the Navy Yard to remove the ammunition and other heavy things from the battleship that she might be lightened before another effort was made to pull her in deep barges. Big barges were sent from the Navy Yard, and on these tons of ammunition of every description were loaded. Other things that were heavy and which could be moved without trouble were taken off the battleship. None of her big guns were touched.

Tonight, the Merritt and Chapman tug Rescue went to the assistance and after working for about an hour the Kentucky was pulled into deep water and headed under her own steam for the Navy Yard.

The grounding of the Kentucky, like all other things that happen in the Navy, will be investigated by the usual board of inquiry. In Washington it is apparent, that the accident to the big ship was due to the fact that her navigator endeavored to avoid a possible collision with vessels at anchor off Lambert's Point and as a result ran the ship on the mud.

NO PROHIBITION FOR THEM.

German-Americans Stand Out For "Personal Liberty."

New York, Oct. 6.—A series of resolutions covering widely divergent subjects was adopted at today's session of the German-American Alliance. The report of the committee on personal liberty, which was accepted, protested against "the interference of the church in legislation and politics and its meddling with the private affairs of a public officer;" criticised Gov. J. Frank Hanly, of Indiana, for his appeal for temperance legislation; commended Henry Watterson for "the courageous expression of his sentiments" against prohibition; declared in favor of the re-establishment of the army canteen, and characterized the failure of his conference to elect Vice President Fairbanks a delegate to the Methodist General Conference because of the cocktail episode as a violation of the principles of personal liberty.

The convention appointed a committee to work with committees of other nationalities in opposition to more stringent laws against desirable immigrants, and declared in favor of postal reform laws.

A permanent committee, with Dr. Ernest Richard, of Columbia University, as chairman, was appointed to work in the interest of universal peace.

The party will go down in wagonettes and the usual elaborate ceremony will be observed according to the ritual of the order. The orator of the occasion will most likely be Robert W. Davis, Esq., a talented member of the Southport bar and an enthusiastic member of the order. A very large attendance upon the exercises is expected.

Harriss, the colored woman who carved up Irene Williams at Tenth and Chestnut streets Monday afternoon, necessitating her going to the hospital, was bound over to the higher court under two charges yesterday by Justice Bornemann. STOLE ANTIQUITIES.

Paris is Stirred Up Over Remarkable Thefts.

(By Cable to The Morning Star.)

Paris, Oct. 8.—Considerable sensation has been caused by the remarkable confession of Antoni Thomas, of Clermont-Ferrand, who was arrested with his mother and brother charged with complicity in the theft of the famous cope of Orth, which belonged to the State and was valued at $120,000 from the church of Ambazao, near Limoges. For months, precious relics have been disappearing from churches creating the impression that a gang of thieves were systematically at work. Thomas, who gave himself up to clear his mother and sister, now asserts that this theory is correct. He declares that after the passage of the church and State separation law and the taking of the church inventories began, antiquarious of Paris, some of whom are millionaires, hired them, and others to go through the country and bribe the parish priests to surrender the relics and substitute counterfeits which could be turned over to the State. He says this plan of operation continued for months, but as many of the most valuable church treasures could not be counterfeited, he finally went boldly into the business of wholesale burglary. Thomas estimated the amount of his robbery at $400,000.

The Cope of Orth belonged to the Order of Grammont, or Granmountains, whose monastery was situated at Muret, near Limoges. It disappeared during the French revolution when the Order was dissolved and later turned up in the church of Amabazac from which it was stolen. Thomas says he sold it to an antiquary of London for $10,000. He further declares that the antiquaries of Paris get rid of their "plunder" in England and America, and announced his intention to make a clean breast of it and expose his accomplices.

GENERAL BOOTH TO RETIRE.

Eldest Son May Assume Salvation Army Leadership.

(Special to Baltimore Sun.)

Chicago, Oct. 7.—Gen. William Booth, the octogenarian founder and leader of the Salvation Army, has decided to retire from active work. At a meeting he addressed in Chicago last night he announced that it was his last address. In view of his advanced age his followers declared it probably was the last occasion their leader would ever appear in public. All three meetings held here yesterday were crowded. It is estimated that nearly 10,000 persons were in the audiences, and thousands were turned away.

Though General Booth is hale and vigorous, the strain of the day's work plainly told upon him. That he realizes that his days are numbered was suggested by his own announcement at the afternoon meeting that his successor had been chosen. He did not make public the identity of the person on whom the mantle is to fall. The popular idea has been in this country that his daughter, Commander Evangeline Booth, would succeed him, but this was proved erroneous when local leaders of the Salvation Army asserted authoritatively that Bramwell Booth, the General's eldest son, now his chief of staff in London, will succeed to the world leadership of the organization.

THEATRES ABOARDSHIP.

Frohman Would Make London and New York Theatrical Suburbs.

(Special to Baltimore Sun.)

New York, Oct. 8.—Charles Frohman yesterday made known plans for presenting his stars and many of his large productions on the big trans-Atlantic steamships.

Mr. Frohman said:

"I am negotiating with the Cunard Steamship Company in regard to adding to their already extensive department equipment of the new Lusitania, and her sister ship, the Mauretania, soon to make her maiden voyage to this country, the necessary stage facilities for giving a complete dramatic performance on board each of these mammoth vessels.

"Nothing but the question of expense stands between making London and New York theatrical suburbs to each other. And I think the expense of such trips is already solved. The arrival here of the Lusitania last week with 2,000 passengers gave me the suggestion that I may soon be able to send an American company to London every fortnight, playing them right across the Atlantic, with perhaps the loss of not more than two performances on the way."

THE PRESIDENT IN CAMP

Having Wet Old Time of it Down in Louisiana.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Stamboul, La., Oct. 8.—Secretary Latta returned today from his visit to the President on the Tensas river bringing with him a batch of newly dictated letters, and recollections of a very wet night spent in camp. He says that yesterday's rain was even more than was bargained for and that while the first effect was to put the woods in good condition they became so wet by 2 o'clock that the party was compelled to return to camp. The rain which had begun early in the day continued through the night and it was decided not to venture out at all today owing to the water in the cane brakes in which they are hunting. No one has yet sighted a bear, but the dogs found a trail yesterday and the professional hunters expressed the belief from the sound the baying meant that they had located a real bear. It was dark, however, and became necessary to call the hunt off. Another deer was shot yesterday.

While lying on her bed in the hospital ward of the Ohio penitentiary today Mrs. Cassie Chadwick, who is serving a term in the Ohio penitentiary for wrecking the First National Bank at Oberlin, Ohio, was baptized into the Roman Catholic Church by Father Kelly, chaplain at the prison.

BESET BY CAMERA FIENDS

Vanderbilts Ask Protection For Miss Gladys And Her Count.

(Special to Baltimore Sun.)

Newport, R. I., Oct., 7.—That Miss Gladys Vanderbilt and her fiance, the Count Laszio Szechenyi are being annoyed by men with cameras is shown by a formal complaint made to the police this morning by a member of the Vanderbilt family. The patrolmen were immediately ordered to prevent any continuance of the practice as far as they could.

There is no law in Rhode Island by which the taking of pictures against the wish of the subject can be prevented, but photographers might be arrested for blocking sidewalks and streets, and the ordinance against this will be resorted to if necessary.

Most of the photographers who came to Newport as soon as possible after the announcement of the engagement have departed, but a number still linger, hoping for better luck than they have had.

The first entertainment in honor of Miss Vanderbilt and the Count was given this evening by Mr. and Mrs. William Watts Sherman. It was a young people's dinner, the guests numbering 20.

Next week Mr. and Mrs. Alfred G. Vanderbilt will take a party, including Miss Vanderbilt and the Count, to Sagamore, their lodge in the Adirondacks. They will remain there about a week.

SUIT AGAINST COMPANIES.

Western Union and Postal for Violation of Anti-Trust Law.

(By wire to Raleigh Times.)

Washington, Oct. 8.—Formal charges were filed today with the Department of Justice against the Western Union Telegraph Company and the Postal Telegraph and Cable Company, charging them with a conspiracy in restraint of trade, under the Sherman anti-trust law. Striking telegraphers are behind the movement, and it is said the American Federation of Labor had loaned legal talent to aid in the preparation of the case.

It is alleged that the two companies have conspired to boost the tolls on telegrams. The charges follow closely those brought against the two companies by the attorney general of the State of New York a few days ago, under a State law. Before taking any action, the Department of Justice will not only go over the evidence submitted by the complainants, as exhibits, but will make a quiet investigation on its own account.

WARFIELD FOR SENATE.

Governor of Maryland Has Announced His Candidacy—Definitions.

Baltimore, Oct. 8.—Governor Warfield has announced his candidacy for the United States Senatorship. Attached to his candidacy, however, are certain conditions. These are to the effect that a definition of a Democrat entitled to vote at the Senatorial primaries be agreed upon; that the several candidates for the Senate agree among themselves to adopt the plurality plan; that the limit of expenditures in the primary campaign shall be $1,000, and that all other contributions in the general campaign shall be made known to other candidates for the Senate upon request; that each candidate shall have the power to object to judges and clerks and upon objections new judges and clerks shall be substituted.

Politicians believe the conditions will not be accepted, and that Warfield will eventually decide not to go into the fight.

MURDERED A CHILD.

Maltreated Nine Year Old Girl, Then Killed Her.

Camden, N. J., Oct. 8.—Details of the confession made by a 16-year-old boy, Joseph Wood that he had maltreated 9-year-old Ethel Marx, and then killed her with a hatchet, were given out by the county prosecutor today.

In his confession the boy says he saw her passing an orchard and called her to him, walking with her into the lot. The child hesitated and Wood confesses he then told her he wanted to play.

But in the shelter of the bushes he overpowered her. He says, in his confession, the girl cried and threatened to tell her mother. He then hit her first on the back of the head with a hatchet. After this he hit her over and over with the sharp edge of the hatchet.

FATAL FLAG RUSH

Serious Accidents at Ohio Wesleyan at Delaware Yesterday.

Delaware, Ohio, Oct. 5.—Two broken arms, one man believed to be seriously injured internally, one man minus an ear and dozens of others that have injuries of a minor nature is the result of one of the briefest but most spirited flag rushes in the history of Ohio Wesleyan which occurred today. Those injured are E. G. Blackford, Mt. Gilead, arm broken and shoulder blade broken; Charles L. Draper, Bowling Green, Ohio, wrist broken; M. C. Cartwright, Moundsville, W. Va., internal injuries, may be serious; a Japanese, ear nearly torn off.

PROHIBITION IN ASHEVILLE.

Sweeping Victory Over Saloons in Mountain Metropolis.

Asheville, N. C., Oct. 8.—After a brief but strenuous campaign, the prohibitionists carried the liquor election in this city today by a majority of 848.

A material factor in the result was the presence at the polls of women and childern, who sang and prayed and served lunches. Asheville will be dry after January 1st next.

Fayetteville, N. C., Oct. 8.—President J. A. Oates, of the North Carolina Anti-Saloon League, at noon today received the following telegram which was quickly followed by the second as given:

"Asheville, N. C., Oct. 8, 1907.

"J. A. Oates, Fayetteville, N. C.:

"Seven hundred and sixty, dry; one hundred and seventy, wet, at 11 o'clock. J. H. TUCKER.

"Asheville, N. C., Oct. 8, 3:45 P. M.

"N. C. Baptist, Fayetteville, N. C.:

"Prohibitionists have obtained a sweeping victory. Already they have enough votes polled to secure every precinct in the city.

"W. R. WHITESON."

(Special to Raleigh Times.)

Asheville, N. C., Oct. 8.—Asheville is today in the throes of a most novel and intensely interesting election. The people of this city are settling the whiskey question. They are determining whether liquor shall or shall not be sold in this city.

The scenes at the polling booths today have no parallel in the history of this section. Men, women and childern are working, praying and singing.

It is evident that there will be a landslide for prohibition. At 10:30 o'clock approximately nine hundred votes out of the two thousand qualified votes had been cast and the prohibitionists had a majority at that hour of six hundred and two. The people of Asheville are aroused as they have not been in many years. The total count may show even a larger mapority than that which is indicated by the vote cast up to two o'clock, which is more than two to one.

SOUTH AND WESTERN

Local Paper Tells Something of New Mountain Railroad.

Bakersville, N. C., Oct. 8.—The Observer of this place prints the following interesting facts concerning the construction of the South and Western Railroad, which is to be so important a factor in this section in the future

"The road will be one of the best constructed anywhere in the south. There will be 21 tunnels through the ridge. The longest will be 2,250 feet in length. One tunnel, 1,850 feet, has just been completed. It is said by some railroad men that trains will be run through to Marion by next May. There are about 1,500 men at work between Altapass and Marion. The distance between Altapass and Marion by public road is 18 males, by rail when complete, 33 miles. The grade is one-ninteenth per cent. Eighty-five pound steel rails will be laid over the entire road. Several miles are already laid between Altapass and Bakersville or Toecane. No scenery this side of the Rocky Mountains can surpass that along this line—steel and concrete bridges. The tunnels are faced with concrete. The work is made to last. Greater progress is being made now than ever before in the history of the road. The contractors for this road are the second largest in the world, McArthur Bros. & Co."

STANDARD OIL INQUIRY

Various Stages Through Which Mammoth Combine Passed.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 8.—From statements culled from ledgers and books found in the offices of the Standard Oil Company, Frank B. Kellogg, counsel for the United States government, succeeded in placing on today's record of the Federal proceedings against the oil combine the processes and stages through which the combine passed in its changes from the old Standard Oil trust to the present Standard Oil Company of New Jersey. Out of the maze of figures developed in a voluminous mass from the company's books and from testimony given by Clarence G. Fay, assistant auditor of the Standard, called as a witness today, the government's counsel says he believes he has proved the Federal allegation that the Standard is an illegal corporation and that by devious devices has maintained its entity and that it is under the same owenrship as when it was formed.

THE RAILROAD WAR

Central of Georgia Involved Down in Alabama State.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Montgomery, Ala., Oct 8.—Prospects for a clash between the State and Federal courts lie in the refusal of the Central of Georgia railroad at the meeting of the railroad commission today to go into the question of rates on cotton compresses on the ground that this is one of the rates enjoined by the Federal Court. However, the commission decided that it could regulate the rate and at once went into the taking of evidence, though protest was made my officers of the Central.

FROM WHITEVILLE, N. C.

(By wire to The Morning Star.)

Denver, Colo., Oct. 8—E. T. Osborne, bookkeeper for the Green Canon Coal Company, was shot and instantly killed last night by E. L. Pierce, claim accountant for the Denver and Rio Grande railroad. Both men were attending a night school and quarreled. Both men were recent arrivals in the city, Osborne coming from Kansas, and Pierce from Whiteville, N. C.

Out of Sight.

"Out of sight, out of mind," is an old saying which applies with special force to a sore, burn or wound that's been treated with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's out of sight, out of mind and out of existence. Piles too and chilblains disappear under its healing influence. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy, Druggist. 25c.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Lumberton Robesonian: "Bids on the $50,000 Robeson county bonds to be issued for the court house will be opened this afternoon and the bonds will be sold if there is a satisfactory bid. It is thought that the bonds will bring $1,500 or $2.00 above par. Several gentlemen are here to bid on the bonds in person."

—Lumberton Robesonian: The colored porter on Seaboard train No. 44 to Wilmington was struck over the head with a beer bottle by some unknown person last night just as the train was pulling out of Maxton. The train was stopped and an effort made to find the guilty person, but the search was fruitless. Since the blow was on the negro's head the damage was not very great —Charlotte Chronicle: The case of Percy G. Fonville, charged with aiding and abetting Franc H. Jones in the robbery of the Charlotte National Bank, has been set for Wednesday of this week in Federal Court at Greensboro. Mr. Fonville and his father, who spent yesterday in the city, left this morning for Greensboro. Stewart & McRae and Tillett & Guthrie are the Charlotte lawyers. It is probable that a Greensboro attorney will also be employed on the side of the defense.

—Wilson, N. C., Oct. 7.—News was received here today of a horrible murder committed at the Jefferson place, four miles from Farmville. Two brothers lived there—Tom and Jim Jefferson. Jim was demented. Tom killed him and claimed that he committed the deed in self-defense. Upon the trial it was shown that he struck him on the head with a piece of stove wood while he was asleep. Tom was put in jail to await Pitt Superior Court.

—Wilson, N. C., Oct. 7.—This afternoon a colored man named Japeth Driver died on the Atlantic Coast Line train between Elm City and Wilson. He was crazy and Deputy Sheriff Wheless, of Nash county, was taking him to the Goldsboro insane asylum. Shortly after leaving Elm City, he became unruly and the deputy sheriff found it necessary to restrain him to prevent him injuring himself. He died while Sheriff Wheless was holding him. His body was brought here to be prepared for burial.

—Fayetteville Observer: An "Unknown Tongue" preacher was in town yesterday and told of a marvelous occurrence at a recent service in his church, located near Fayetteville. He says that a large and beautiful silver spider appeared in the church and wove a message in the "Unknown Tongue." He declined to say what the message was. By the way, the preacher and several members of the Campbellton Unknown Tongue church were holding services on Market Square Saturday afternoon.

—Fayetteville Observer: "The Fayetteville Fire Department has signed contracts with the Smith Amusement Company for a week's carnival of fun to cover the dates of October 21st to 26th. This company has the reputation of being by odds the best equipped organization on the road and gives every assurance that their performance and varied amusements will not only draw large crowds, but will certainly please and gratify them. The percentage received by the Fire Department will be expended in increasing its efficiency as a fire-fighting organization."

—Raleigh, Oct. 7.—Rev. Livingston Johnston, corresponding secretary of the Baptist State Board of Missions, in an address at the First Baptist Church of Raleigh yesterday, severely attacked the Legislature and the good women who are conducting the orphanage at Marion, McDowell county, to which the Legislature appropriated $1,000. He calls her a "Holiness Church follower," attacks her faith and good intentions and says she beat all the railroad lawyers lobbying during the Legislature. The attack caused great surprise as the woman in question is generally regarded as doing a great work.

—Capt. Jas. D. McNeill, chairman of the Parade Committee for Bryan Day at Fayetteville, is going to make the escort to the distinguished Nebraskan a big feature of the celebration. He writes in the Fayetteville Observer: "Kindly allow me, in addition to the many personal letters that I am sending out to representative men in both this county and adjoining ones, to call attention of every citizen who can possibly do so, to come to the big Bryan demonstration on the 15th mounted and prepared to join in the mounted escort to Mr. Bryan. We want to escort him from the city to the Fair Grounds, where he will speak at 2 P. M. with at least 2,000 men from Cumberland, Robeson, Bladen, Sampson, Harnett, Moore and Lee counties."

SPECIAL TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Advance in Rates of Subscription Beginning October 1st.

Beginning October 1, the subscription rates of The Morning Star will be as follows:

By Mail—One year, $6.00; six months, $3.00; three months, $1.50; two months, $1.25; one month, 75 cents.

By Carrier—Delivered in any part of the city, 50 cents per month either by the month or year.

This moderate advance has been deferred until it has become absolutely necessary on account of the largely increased cost involved in the production of newspapers.

For many years the subscription price of The Morning Star has been lower than that of any other paper of its class in the State.

A young man with one or two years' experience in plain ruling and binding may secure a good situation by making application at The Star office. 3t

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 8.—Fluctuations in prices of stocks were quite wide today and the purposes of the professional traders were thus better served than in the lethargic market which has prevailed for several days. The drawback was that the fluctuations became rather feverish and erratic, making it difficult even for the room traders to take advantage of opportunities.

The Hill stocks abruptly declined when it became known that Northern Pacific was getting its regular quarterly 1 3-4 per cent., and no more. Their strength earlier had only partly offset the heavy tone in the general list which was inclined to react from the sharp advance after yesterday of its own weight. The reactionary tendency was emphasized by the weakness in Chesapeake and Ohio following the publication of its annual report showing only a nominal surplus left out of the year's results after special appropriations and the payment of the one per cent. dividend on the stock. The maintained firmness of the money market was a restraint on any speculative ventures. The whole market lapsed into extreme dullness again late in the day.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value were $1,114,000. United States 4s declined 1-4 per cent. on call. The sales of stocks today were 397,300 shares.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 8.—The cotton market was nervous and irregular today with the close steady at a net decline of 1 to 4 points. Sales for the day were estimated at 200,000 bales. The opening was steady at an advance of 1 to 4 points, and during the early session the market sold up to a net advance of 4 to 6 points led by the December option on continued bull manipulation covering of shorts firmer cables and less favorable weather reports. There was a good deal of realizing at the advance and the market eased off slowly with December which had sold 10 points over January during the early session dropping to a premium of about six points. The western belt forecast calling for colder weather and frost in Oklahoma, shaped the later months somewhat during the late morning. The tendency was reactionary in the afternoon but fluctuations were irregular and comparatively narrow, and the close was within a point or two of the lowest. Private wires from Memphis reported damage to the grade from rains. Southern spot markets as officially reported were unchanged to 1-8c higher.

Receipts at the ports today were 53,487 bales against 47,467 last week and 84,362 last year. For the week 225,000 bales against 217,697 last week and 344,541 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 10,693 bales against 9,607 last year, and at Houston 13,976 bales against 37,286 last year.

Cotton: Spot closed quiet 5 points lower; middling uplands 11.85; middling gulf 12.10; no sales.

Chinese Language.

An English traveler says that "Chinese language" is a misnomer. "There is no such thing as a Chinese language any more than there is a European language. A Canton man cannot understand an Amoy man, and I have seen two Chinamen sitting together with a third one acting interpreter. Pigeon English is the common tongue of commerce."

What's the Use of paying more for an article through prejudice, than you can buy for less, that's just as good?

Take Whiskey, for Instance.

We make but one charge—just for whiskey—that's all. When you pay more than we ask for our whiskey you are being taxed for something else besides the whiskey.

Now "WHAT'S THE USE" of you paying an excess to anybody for imaginary superiority—when we have the same goods, but are content through immense volumes of sales, to break even on profits—instead of "hikeing up" the price beyond the point of giving you value received.

TWELVE INNINGS FAILS TO DECIDE

First of Series of Games in World's Baseball Championship is a Tie.

ATTENDANCE NEARLY 25,000

Leaders of American and National Leagues Play Strenuous Ball at Chicago for First of Series of Five Games.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Chicago, Oct. 8.—Detroit and Chicago, leaders of the American and National Leagues, respectively, played twelve strenuous innings to a tie here today in the first game of the series for the baseball championship of the world. The contest was replete with sensational situations and when Umpire O'Day, of the National League, called the play off on account of darkness most of the 24,377 spectators sighed with relief and went home well satisfied with the outcome.

Overall and Donovan were the opposing pitchers, but the former was taken out when Chicago had tied the score in the ninth inning, and had men on bases waiting to score the winning run. Moran was sent in to bat for him, but before the latter had time to deliver the needed hit, Evers tried to steal home and was out by a narrow margin, retiring the side. Reulbach finished the game and for three innings retired Detroit's heavy hitters without the semblance of a hit. The work of all the pitchers was first class, but Donovan had a shade on his rivals in that he struck out twelve of the opposing batsmen. His second base on balls was costly, but with good support he would have won his game.

The enlarged stands were packed to capacity while a thin fringe of enthusiasts occupied standing room in deep centrefield. Whatever ground rules may have been formulated were not in evidence as none of the nineteen hits went outside the playing space. The game was called at 2:30 o'clock, but four hours before that time long lines of wouldbe spectators were besieging the gates and good-naturedly struggling to be first through the turnstiles so as to secure points of vantage. It was an extremely good natured crowd, remarkable for its spirit of fair play and courtesy and the half hundred police had no trouble at all in keeping it within bounds.

The game itself was eveniy contested. Both teams broke under fire, Chicago mixing two of its errors with two hits in the eighth inning, when Detroit scored all three of its runs, while the visitors returned the compliment in the next inning, allowing Chicago to tie the score. Captain Coughlin's error came in this inning and was costly. With runners on first and second he let an easy grounder from Evers' bat get away from him, filling the bases. After that two runs came across, one on a passed ball, Schmidt failing to hold Howard's third strike. While this was going on Overall retired from the game, and when the visitors went to bat in the extra innings they had to face Reulbach's speedy delivery in the growing darkness. The tall pitcher was in rare form, having good control and against his curves and shoots such batsmen as Schaefer, Crawford and Cobb were helpless.

The game was scheduled to start at 2:30 o'clock, but nearly ten minutes were consumed while Cobb, Detroit's right fielder, was presented with a huge gold medal set with diamonds as a reward for leading the American League in batting in the season just closed. A long conference between Managers Chance and Jennings and Umpires O'Day and Sheridan also delayed the start.

The score:

Chicago	..000 100 002 000	3	10	3
Detroit	..000 000 030 000	3	9	2

Hits: Off Overall, 9 in nine innings. Sacrifice hits: O'Leary, Steinfeldt, Evers. Stolen bases: Slagle, 2; Scheckard, Chance, Steinfeldt, Evers, Howard, Jones, 2; Schaefer, Rossman. Double plays: Evers to Tinker, Schaefer to Rossman. Left on bases: Chicago, 9; Detroit, 8. Bases on balls: Off Overall, 2; Donovan, 3. First base on errors: Detroit, 1. Hit by pitcher: By Donovan, 2 (Steinfeldt, Sheckard). Struck out: By Donovan, 12; Overall, 5; Reulbach, 2. Passed ball: Schmidt. Time, 2:36. Umpires, O'Day and Sheridan.

THE CUBAN STRIKE.

Serious Aspects of Labor Troubles in Insular Possession.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Havana, Oct., 8.—The Cuban labor organizations at a meeting today adopted a resolution to order a general strike, calling out all the unions in the island, if the railways employ the strike breakers who landed here yesterday from New York. A dispatch has been received from President Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, tendering the labor organizations of Cuba the support of the Federation.

Up to the present no strike breakers have been employed on the roads. They are still awaiting orders at their headquarters. The police have taken precautions to prevent a breach of the peace.

CHURCH AFFAIRS ARE DISCUSSED

Both Houses of Episcopal Convention at Richmond Busy All Day Yesterday.

DIVIDING INTO PROVINCES

Bishops Discuss Question But Take No Action—Proposition for Change of Name—Criticism of Philippine Management—Notes.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Richmond, Va., Oct. 8.—The Episcopal convention held an interesting session in both houses this morning, the bishops discussing the question of dividing the church into eight provinces, each to hold a synod yearly at which the bishops, presbyters and laymen will sit. No action was taken.

The House of Deputies spent the morning in discussing rules of business and many sharp speeches were made both by those who favored the proposed rules offered by Mr. Francis Lyndeitson, of New York, and by Congressman Saunders, of Virginia, who offered many amendments. Judge Saunders finally carried his point with two exceptions after prolonged debate, Mr. Stetson accepting his suggestions except in two instances.

Later in the day Dr. Huntington, of New York, spoke in favor of his proposed preamble which many believe to be an attempt to change the title of the church from Protestant Episcopal Church to American Church. Judge Old, of Virgina, spoke in opposition as did Mr. McConnell, of Louisiana, and several others. Mr. Prince, of New Mexico; Rev. Dr. Ingold and others the word "America."

Dr. Huntington explained that it was necessary to use the word America to distinguish the church from the English Church and this he said was especially necessary at this time, when the whole church was under the glance of the recent visit of the Lord Bishop of London. Judge Old moved to strike out the word "America," but his motion was defeated. Before a vote could be taken a clerical delegate from Chicago moved to strike the words "acknowledge the Holy Scriptures to be the record of God's revelation of himself in his son." and substitute "acknowledging the Holy Scriptures to be the work of God's revelation of himself in his son."

The suggestion of the Chicago delegate will bring about, it is thought, a warm debate on the floor tomorrow for grave church questions are raised and it is said the suggested substitute is an attack upon Dr. Huntington.

The House of Bishops concurred in the resolution permitting the Diocese of Georgia to divide the diocese.

This afternoon a joint session of the two bodies heard Bishop Graves, of China; Bishop McKim, of Japan, and Bishop Brent, of the Philippines, speak on the church in the Far East. Bishop Brent caused a sensation by his criticism of the United States government in the management of the Philippine Islands.

FIGHTS REDUCED RATES

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 7.—Whether reduced passenger fares shall continue in Georgia is the issue involved in the suit in equity of the Central of Georgia Railroad against the State Railroad Commission, argument on which began today in the United States District Court before Judge Newman.

The Central of Georgia, while complying with the commission's order reducing the maximum fare to 2 1-2 cents a mile, alleges that the reduction amounts to confiscation of property.

The State demurred on the ground that the railroad commission and the Governor cannot be made a party to a suit, and on this point rests the future life of the case. If the court decides adversely, the State's lawyers assert that the road will have no case in court until it first violates the order of the commission and is prosecuted by the State.

Former United States Senator Spooner, of Wisconsin, is among the attorneys for the railroad.

Kountze, president of the Colorado National Bank, received through the mails today infernal machines containing sufficient dynamite to have caused great destruction of lives and property, had they exploded, but warning had been given to the recipients of the machines by Chief of Police Delaney, who had obtained a confession from Kemp V. Biglow, by whom they were mailed, and no one was hurt.

IMPORTANT MOVE BY COTTON STATES

Elimination of Middle Man and Marketing Cotton Direct is Recommended.

THE ATLANTA CONFERENCE

Several Subjects of Vital Interest Discussed by Distinguished Men at Spinners and Growers Conference Yesterday.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 8.—That the time is not far distant when the cotton planters of the South will sell their product direct to the spinners of Europe and America instead of through the middle man in bales gin-compressed at the plantation with methods in which loss has been reduced to a minimum, was indicated by today's discussion before the International Conference of Cotton Growers and Spinners. Spinners representing hundreds of mills and millions of spindles told the planters that they were not only willing but anxious to buy their cotton direct from the planter just as soon as the planter can deliver direct. Big planters and representatives of the Farmers' Union told the spinners of Europe that already they were organized, had built a chain of cotton warehouses, had perfected a business system by which the spinners could purchase an almost unlimited supply of graded cotton, and were ready to eliminate the antiquated method of selling through a middle man.

"But," said Herr Arthur Kuffler, of Vienna, "if you planters wish to trade direct with us you must give us better service than the merchants."

Action furthering this condition took concrete form in the unanimous adoption by the conference of a resolution presented by the committee on trade relations between growers and spinners. This resolution declared that much of the present difficulty in handling cotton could be eliminated if the growers would adopt what is known as the warehouse system and establish selling agents in Europe and America.

An essential part of this scheme is the adoption of a standard type of contract, classification of cotton by grade and color, the unit to be 50,000 pounds instead of 100 bales net weight, and the handling of damp cotton under uniform rules. These points were embodied in the resolutions presented by the committee on transportation and these also were adopted by the conference. Thus two long steps in the great work of the conference, the raising of the standard of cotton delivered to the spinner and simpler and more economical methods of handling, involving a saving, it is asserted of something like $25,000,000 a year, were taken.

The great work of the conference yet remains to be done. This is final action on the general subject of growing and handling of cotton. Resolutions bearing on this were presented at today's session by the committee to which the subject was referred and after a somewhat protracted discussion were ordered printed and will come up for further discussion tomorrow, with the probability that the conference will devote most of the final day's session to their consideration. The recommendations of this committee embodied the following points

That planters select and save their seed for the next crop, to insure a high standard.

That freshly picked cotton be housed from forty to sixty days before shipment.

That planters as fast as possible, either as individual or in communities, adopt gin compressing and the Egyptian form of bale. The latter means in effect ginning and compressing on the plantation.

The committee on buying and selling to which was referred Congressman Heflin's resolution directed against cotton speculation adopted the resolution and then referred it to the sub-committee appointed yesterday of which Mr. Heflin is chairman for further action. This means that the subject will be debated on the floor of the conference.

Addresses were made by Thomas Coates, and William Howarth, of England, and Herr Kuffler, of Austria.

Representing the spinners E. A. Calvin, of Houston, Texas, and T. J. Brooks, representing the Farmers Union, spoke with E. D. Smith, of South Carolina, who warmly defended fifteen cent cotton. Samuel T. Hubbard, of the New York Cotton Exchange, and Mark H. Thomas, of Houston, Texas, defended cotton exchanges.

The Conference tomorrow will meet at 9 A. M., and final adjournment will take place late in the afternoon.

AS TO COTTON GOODS.

Important Ruling Made as to Exports From New York.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 8.—Israel Fischer, of the Board of General Appraisers, handed down a decision in the "colored cotton case," today, reversing the decision made a year ago by Marion Devries, and declaring that any cotton cloth containing colored threads no matter its foundation, shall rate as "colored" and not as "unbleached." The duty on unbleached goods is 10 per cent. less. American makers of cotton mixtures maintained that the previous decision defining as unbleached cloth any goods with unbleached foundation threads, was an unjust discrimination and brought a new action to secure what they termed was the full protection of the tariff.

GIVEN THE RIDING TEST

United States Army Officers on a Hike Yesterday.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Washington, Oct. 8.—The first test ride by army officers which was ordered by President Roosevelt to determine the horsemanship of those of higher rank than captain, started from Fort Myer, Va., at 2 P. M. today and 2 1-2 hours later the party was back at the fort, having traversed something over 15 miles of good and bad Virginia roads. There were no spills from the saddle, the nearest approach to casualties being split riding breeches caused by two officers having taken on more than their share of avoirdupois during long detail to desks at the War Department. On the whole the officers, some of whom had not ridden horesback for a number of years until the issuance of the order for the test ride, seemed to enjoy the "hike" and made of it a pleasant outing.

General Duvall, acting chief of the general staff, who led the cavalcade, was much pleased with the showing made. It was feared that some of the officers, advanced in years and soft from desk work, would suffer seriously from the enforced ride and it was predicted that some of them might be mustered out of the army as a result. Whether anything of this kind happens will depend upon the physical examinations made after the ride was over. The results of these examinations will not be made public at this time.

Newspaper men participated in the ride and others followed in automobiles but those who went to scoff were disappointed, as most of the officers showed the effect of training. Several of them admitted that for the last three weeks they had been preparing for the "hike" and it is known that several placed themselves under the guidance of riding masters until they became seasoned and proficient. Twenty nine officers participated in the ride.

Upon reaching the fort, General Duvall again lined up the party and gave them instructions about taking the physical examination. He rather grimly announced that there would be another ride tomorrow if any of the officers cared to go, but there were no volunteers. He then dismissed the party.

FIRE ENGINEERS MEET.

International Association Now in Session in Washington.

(By Wire to the Morning Star).

Washington, Oct. 8.—The International Association of Fire Engineers began its thirty-fifth annual convention in this city today. The programme included a street parade to Odd Fellows Hall, where the delegates were welcomed by District Commissioner MacFarland. After a brief session the convention adjourned until this evening, when memorial services were held for members of the Association who died during the last year.

Among the incidents for the enterment of the visiting chiefs will be a practical demonstration tomorrow of the working of the Washington Fire Department. In the evening a business meeting will be held at which papers of interest to firemen will be read. Officers will be elected Friday, and the convention will adjourn.

SOFT YARN SPINNERS

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 8.—At a meeting today of the Southern Soft Yarn Spinners Association at which 27 out of the 36 mills in the Association were represented, it was determined, in view of the volume of orders, requiring the output of the mills to within 20 per cent. of their capacity for the remaining months of the year, that it is impossible to curtail production for the next 20 days, as had been advocated. At the meeting of the total of 300,000 spindles 254,000 were represented.
